Based on the popular VeggieTales song, the characters reassure children that God is bigger than their fears. Imagined monsters and threatening-looking shadows can fill a child's mind with fear, but God is always watching over us. That is the message of this colorful new book, based on the popular VeggieTales song, 'God Is Bigger Than the Boogie Man.' Through simple rhyming words, Bob and Larry reassure Junior Asparagus and young children that when they hear noises at night, they can smile and rest easy, knowing that God is watching out for them. Little ones can push the sound button to hear Larry singing the refrain from the song. And soon children will find themselves singing along as well. Ages 2-5.
